What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?

Credit risk

As part of its trading operations, the Issuer enters into loans, OTC derivatives, securities lending transactions and other financial transactions with a number of counterparties. Credit risk is the risk of loss that the Issuer may incur as a result of borrowers or other counterparties of the Issuer defaulting on their payment obligations in respect of such transactions, including the risks attaching to the Issuer's customers having financial difficulties and risks relating to large exposures, which could impact the Issuer's ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

Market risk

The Issuer faces market risks as an inherent part of its business. The Issuer's market risk relates to the risk of loss that the Issuer may incur because of adverse developments in market values resulting from fluctuations in interest rates, credit spreads, foreign currency exchange rates and equity and commodity prices. The performance of financial markets may cause changes in the value of the Issuer's investment and trading books which may adversely affect the Issuer's financial position, including reducing its revenue which, in turn, could prevent the Issuer from fulfilling its payment obligations under the Notes.

Liquidity risk

The Issuer is subject to liquidity risk, being the risk that a lack of funding prevents the Issuer from being able to finance its activities (i.e. to ensure the growth of its assets or perform its obligations as they fall due). The Issuer is subject to the following types of liquidity risk:

- i. physical liquidity risk, being the risk of default by the Issuer on its liabilities to counterparties in any currency because of a shortage of cash or non-cash funds; and
- ii. structural liquidity risk (i.e. concentration risk), being the risk of a significant deterioration of the Issuer's physical or regulatory liquidity due to an imbalance in the Issuer's asset and liability structure, which arises from a mismatch between the maturity of the Issuer's assets and liabilities. Although an unmatched position potentially enhances profitability, it can also increase the risk of losses for the Issuer.

If the Issuer is unable to finance its activities due to a lack of liquidity, this could lead creditors to form a negative view of Issuer's liquidity. This could result in higher borrowing costs and decreased access to various funding sources for the Issuer, which, in turn, could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's business, results of operations, financial position or prospects.

Insolvency risks under Cypriot law

The insolvency proceedings to which the Issuer could be subject to in Cyprus are (i) receivership, (ii) administration and (iii) winding up (a) by the court, (b) voluntarily by its shareholders or creditors or (c) subject to the supervision of the court.

Risk factor relating to the ultimate shareholder of the Issuer

The ultimate shareholder owning and controlling the Issuer is Oleg Mikhasenko, who is the sole ultimate beneficial owner of the Group. The Issuer does not have any specific measures in place to ensure that this position of control is not abused. The Issuer has a dedicated board of directors and has established a number of committees, pursuant to which there is a clear allocation of powers between executive and non-executive directors. The Issuer's principles of governance are contained in its corporate governance manual. The committees established by the Issuer include an audit committee, new products committee and risk committee and the activities of the Issuer are usually in line with relevant approvals of the board or the relevant committee. If, notwithstanding this, such position of control were to be abused, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition, results of operations and future prospects which may, in turn, result in the Issuer being unable to fulfil its obligation to Noteholders under the Notes.

Risks factors relating to the Russian Federation

Economic, political and legal uncertainty in Russia could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer. A significant proportion of the Issuer's revenue is derived from Russian investors and, as such, a large number of the Issuer's counterparties are based in Russia. Instability in Russia could seriously impact Russian counterparties' ability to invest which could lead to a reduction in the Issuer's revenue. Any such reduction in revenue could potentially affect the Issuer's ability to make payments to Noteholders under the Notes in part or in full.

Interest

The Notes pay interest determined by reference to the Shares. Interest, if any, will be payable on the Interest Period End Dates as the Interest Payment Dates for the Notes. The Notes bear or pay interest on the basis of a "Snowball Digital Coupon Condition" with a memory effect. Any interest not paid in respect of a period may be paid at a later date if certain conditions are met.

In summary, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share (the "Worst Value") in respect of an Interest Valuation Date is greater than or equal to at least one of the Snowball Levels, Noteholders will receive an interest payment on the related interest payment date equal to (A) the Specified Denomination multiplied by (B) the Interest Percentage for the highest Snowball Level that is satisfied. Noteholders will also receive on such interest payment date the sum of all unpaid interest amounts in respect of any previous interest payments at such rate. However, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share in respect of such Interest Valuation Date is less than 65%, no interest amount is payable on such interest payment date.

The most material risk factors pertaining to the Guarantor

Operational risk

The Guarantor is subject to operational risk, being the risk of direct or indirect losses resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems or from external events. Losses can take the form of direct financial losses, regulatory sanctions or lost revenues.

Insolvency

The insolvency proceedings to which the Guarantor could be subject to in Cyprus are the same as the Issuer (see "Insolvency risks under Cypriot law above").

Ultimate shareholder of the Guarantor

The ultimate shareholder owning and controlling the Guarantor is Oleg Mikhasenko. If a shareholder abuses a position of control, this could have a material adverse effect on the financial condition of the Guarantor, the results of operations and future prospects, which, in turn, could result in the Guarantor failing to fulfil its obligations to the Noteholders.

What are the key risks that are specific to the Notes?

In addition to the risks relating to the Issuer (including default risk) that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes, there are certain factors which are material for the purposes of assessing the market risks associated with Notes, including that (i) the trading market for the Notes may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events, (ii) an active secondary market may never be established or may be illiquid and that this may adversely affect the value at which an investor may sell its Notes (investors may suffer a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment), (iii) the trading price of the Notes is affected by a number of factors including, but not limited to, the price of the Shares and volatility and such factors mean that the trading price of the Notes may be below the Final Redemption Amount, (iv) exposure to the Shares may be achieved by the Issuer entering into hedging arrangements and investors are exposed to the performance of these hedging arrangements and events that may affect the hedging arrangements and consequently the occurrence of any of these events may affect the value of the Notes, (v) the occurrence of an additional disruption event or optional additional disruption event may lead to an adjustment to the Notes, or early redemption or may result in the amount payable on scheduled redemption being different from the amount expected to be paid at scheduled redemption and consequently the occurrence of an additional disruption event and/or optional additional disruption event may have an adverse effect on the value or liquidity of the Notes, and (vi) the meetings of Noteholders provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders. In addition, there are specific risks in relation to Notes which are linked to a basket of Shares and an investment in such Notes will entail significant risks not associated with an investment in a conventional debt security. Risk factors in relation to share linked Notes include similar market risks to a direct equity investment, potential adjustment events or extraordinary events affecting the shares and market disruption or failure to open of an exchange which may have an adverse effect on the value and liquidity of the Shares. In certain circumstances Noteholders may lose the entire value of their investment.

KEY INFORMATION ON THE OFFER OF THE NOTES TO THE PUBLIC AND THE ADMISSION TO TRADING ON A REGULATED MARKET

Under which conditions and timetable can I invest in this security?

The Notes are offered by way of private placement. This is not a public offer and the Issuer does not consent to the use of this Drawdown Prospectus in connection with any public offer of the Notes. The Issuer has appointed BrokerCreditService (Cyprus) Limited (the "Dealer") as the Dealer for the Programme. The arrangements under which Notes may from time to time be agreed to be sold by the Issuer to, and purchased or placed by, the Dealer is set out in the Dealer Agreement between the Issuer and the Dealer. No expenses will be chargeable by the Issuer to an investor in connection with the issue of the Notes. Any expenses chargeable by the Dealer to an investor shall be changed in accordance with any relevant contractual arrangements between the Dealer and that investor.

Who is the offeror and/or the person asking for admission to trading?

BrokerCreditService (Cyprus) Limited (as the Dealer for the Programme). BrokerCreditService (Cyprus) Limited was incorporated in Cyprus on 7 December 2004, Registration Number HE 154856. Its registered office is at Spyrou Kyprianou & 1 Oktovriou, 1 VASHIOTIS KALANDE OFFICES, 2nd floor, Mesa Geitonia, 4004 Limassol, Cyprus.

Why is the prospectus being produced?

The use and estimated net amount of the proceeds:

The net proceeds from the issue of the Notes will be used for the general financing purposes of the Issuer. The offer of the Notes is not subject to an underwriting agreement.

Conflicts of interest:

Various entities within the Group (including the Issuer) may undertake different roles in connection with the Notes and may also engage in trading activities (including hedging activities) relating to the Shares and other instruments or derivative products based on or relating to the Shares which may give rise to potential conflicts of interest. In particular, the Calculation Agent is an affiliate of the Issuer. The Calculation Agent has no obligation to act in the best interests of the Noteholders and therefore a conflict of interest may arise between the Calculation Agent and Noteholders.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors in the Notes should consider carefully the information contained in this Drawdown Prospectus and the documents which are incorporated by reference in this Drawdown Prospectus and in particular should consider all the risks inherent in making such an investment, including the information in the section in the Base Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" (the Programme Risk Factors), before making a decision to invest. The Issuer has identified in the Programme Risk Factors a number of factors which could materially adversely affect the business of the Issuer and its ability to make payments due under the Notes. In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with the Notes are also described in the Programme Risk Factors.

Risks relating to Share Linked Notes

The amount of principal and/or interest payable under the Notes are dependent upon the price of or changes in the price of a basket of the following shares (each a "Share" and together the "Shares"):

- i. Meta Platforms Inc (Bloomberg Code: FB UW Equity; ISIN: US30303M1027);
- ii. Netflix Inc (Bloomberg Code: NFLX UW Equity; ISIN: US64110L1061);
- iii. Pfizer Inc (Bloomberg Code: PFE UN Equity; ISIN: US7170811035);
- iv. Uber Technologies Inc (Bloomberg Code: UBER UN Equity; ISIN: US90353T1007); and
- v. Volkswagen AG (Bloomberg Code: VOW3 GY Equity; ISIN: DE0007664039).

Accordingly an investment in the Notes may bear similar market risks to a direct equity investment and potential investors should take advice accordingly. Potential investors in the Notes should be aware that as a result of the terms of the Notes (i) they may receive no or a limited amount of interest, (ii) payment of principal or interest may occur at a different time than expected and (iii) they may lose all or a substantial portion of their investment.

In summary, in respect of interest payments, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share in respect of an interest valuation date is greater than or equal to at least one of the Snowball Levels, Noteholders will receive an interest payment on the related interest payment date equal to (A) the outstanding principal amount of their Notes multiplied by (B) the specified interest percentage for the highest Snowball Level that is satisfied. Noteholders will also receive on such interest payment date the sum of all unpaid interest amounts in respect of any previous interest payments at such rate. However, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share in respect of such interest valuation date is less than 65%, no interest amount is payable on such interest payment date. As a result, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share is less than 65% on one or more interest valuation dates then Noteholders will receive no interest on one or more interest payment dates and if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share is never above 65% on an interest valuation date then Noteholders will receive no interest.

In respect of payments of principal, in summary, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share in respect of the last interest valuation date is greater than or equal to 65%, the Notes will be redeemed at 120% of par. If the Reference Value in respect of the Worst Performing Share in respect of the last interest valuation date is less than 65% (representing a decline of more than 35% from the Closing Value of such Worst Performing Share as of the strike date of 28 February 2022), Noteholders will receive a final redemption amount equal to (A) the outstanding principal amount of their Notes multiplied by (B) the Reference Value in respect of the Worst Performing Share in respect of the last interest valuation date, with the result that the nominal amount invested by a Noteholder will be lost at a rate of 1% for every 1% that the Closing Value of such Worst Performing Share in respect of the last interest valuation date is below the Initial Value of such Worst Performing Share.

The movements in the price of the basket of shares may be subject to significant fluctuations that may not correlate with changes in interest rates, currencies or other indices and the timing of changes in the relevant price of the shares, may affect the actual yield to investors, even if the average level is consistent with their expectations.

Other risks relating to the Notes

There are certain factors which are material for the purposes of assessing the market risks associated with Notes, including that (i) the trading market for the Notes may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events, (ii) an active secondary market may never be established or may be illiquid and that this may adversely affect the value at which an investor may sell its Notes (investors may suffer a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment), (iii) the trading price of the Notes is affected by a number of factors including, but not limited to, the price of the Shares and their volatility and such factors mean that the trading price of the Notes may be below the Final Redemption Amount, (iv) exposure to the Shares may be achieved by the Issuer entering into hedging arrangements (which such arrangements may change from time to time and could include the outright purchase and/or sale of the Shares, entering into total return swaps in relation to the Shares or the purchase and/or sale of exchange traded derivatives on the Shares) and investors are exposed to the performance of these hedging arrangements and events that may affect the hedging arrangements and consequently the occurrence of any of these events may affect the value of the Notes, (v) the occurrence of an additional disruption event or optional additional disruption event may lead to an adjustment to the Notes, or early redemption or may result in the amount payable on scheduled redemption being different from the amount expected to be paid at scheduled redemption and consequently the occurrence of an additional disruption event and/or optional additional disruption event may have an adverse effect on the value or liquidity of the Notes, and (vi) the meetings of Noteholders provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders. In addition, there are specific risks in relation to Notes which are linked to a basket of Shares and an investment in such Notes will entail significant risks not associated with an investment in a conventional debt security. Risk factors in relation to share linked Notes include similar market risks to a direct equity investment, potential adjustment events or extraordinary events affecting the shares and market disruption or failure to open of an exchange which may have an adverse effect on the value and liquidity of the Shares. In certain circumstances Noteholders may lose the entire value of their investment.

Risks relating to the early redemption of the Notes at the option of the Issuer

The Issuer has the right to redeem the Notes at its option, which may limit the market value of the Notes and an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a manner which achieves a similar effective return.

Risks relating to the Security

Recharacterisation of fixed security interests

There is a possibility that a court could find that certain of the fixed security interests expressed to be created by the security documents which are governed by English law could take effect as floating charges notwithstanding that they are expressed to be fixed charges. Where the chargor is free to deal with the Charged Assets without the consent of the chargee, the court would be likely to hold that the security interest in question constitutes a floating charge, notwithstanding that it may be described as a fixed charge.

Whether the fixed security interests will be upheld as fixed security interests rather than floating security interests will depend, among other things, on whether the Security Trustee has the requisite degree of control over the chargor's ability to deal in the relevant assets and the proceeds thereof and, if so, whether such control is exercised by the Security Trustee in practice.

The transaction security may not be sufficient to meet all payments in respect of the Notes

The Notes have the benefit of security granted by the Issuer over the Charged Assets. Such security may be enforced if the Issuer defaults on certain obligations under the Notes and, in such circumstances, any net proceeds realised upon enforcement of the security will be applied in or towards satisfaction of the claims of, among others, the Security Trustee and any delegate and/or receiver appointed by the Security Trustee in respect of the Notes before the claims of the holders of the Notes. Accordingly, whilst investors in the Notes have recourse to any proceeds realised upon enforcement of the security and may therefore recover some of their initial investment and may as a result suffer a lesser loss on their investment than investors in unsecured notes or other unsecured products, there is no guarantee that investors in the Notes will recover the full amount of their initial investment if the net proceeds are insufficient to satisfy the claims of all persons who benefit from such security.

Furthermore, changes in the market value of the Charged Assets arising after the Issue Date may mean that the net proceeds realised upon enforcement of the security over the Charged Assets are insufficient to meet in full the claims of the holders of the Notes.

Security Trustee not obliged to act

Whenever the Security Trustee is entitled to act under the Security Agreement, including in relation to the enforcement of the security granted thereunder, it is not obliged to act unless directed to do so by Noteholders holding not less than 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding and subject to the Security Trustee receiving any indemnification and/or security that it may in its absolute discretion require (whether by way of payment in advance or otherwise) for all costs, losses and liabilities which it may incur in bringing the relevant action or proceedings. If such requirements are not satisfied, then the Security Trustee is likely to take no enforcement action in relation to the security notwithstanding that the security has become enforceable.

Risk factor relating to the ultimate shareholder of the Issuer

The ultimate shareholder owning and controlling the Issuer is Oleg Mikhasenko, who is the sole ultimate beneficial owner of the Group. The Issuer does not have any specific measures in place to ensure that this position of control is not abused. The Issuer has a dedicated board of directors and has established a number of committees, pursuant to which there is a clear allocation of powers between executive and non-executive directors. The Issuer's principles of governance are contained in its corporate governance manual. The committees established by the Issuer include an audit committee, new products committee and risk committee and the activities of the Issuer are usually in line with relevant approvals of the board or the relevant committee. If, notwithstanding this, such position of control were to be abused, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition, results of operations and future prospects which may, in turn, result in the Issuer being unable to fulfil its obligation to Noteholders under the Notes.

Risk factor relating to sanctions

None of the proceeds of the issue of the Notes shall be used to fund activities or persons that are subject to sanctions enacted or enforced by the European Union or United States or of any state or region thereof from time to time.

DESCRIPTION OF POTENTIAL PAYOUTS

Interest

The Notes pay interest determined by reference to the Shares. Interest, if any, will be payable on the Interest Period End Dates as the Interest Payment Dates for the Notes. The Notes bear or pay interest on the basis of a 'Snowball Digital Coupon Condition' with a memory effect. Any interest not paid in respect of a period may be paid at a later date if certain conditions are met.

In summary, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share (the "Worst Value") in respect of an Interest Valuation Date is greater than or equal to at least one of the Snowball Levels, Noteholders will receive an interest payment on the related interest payment date equal to (A) the Specified Denomination multiplied by (B) the Interest Percentage for the highest Snowball Level that is satisfied. Noteholders will also receive on such interest payment date the sum of all unpaid interest amounts in respect of any previous interest payments at such rate. However, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share in respect of such Interest Valuation Date is less than 65%, no interest amount is payable on such interest payment date.

Where:

"Closing Value" means the value of a Share at the close of trading on the relevant exchange in respect of a given trading day;

"Initial Value" means the Closing Value in respect of a Share in respect of the Strike Date;

"Interest Percentage" means, (i) in respect of Snowball Level (1), 5% per Interest Period and (ii) in respect of Snowball Level (2), 3.5% per Interest Period.

"Interest Period" means each period from (and including) an Interest Period End Date (or the Issue Date in the case of the first Interest Period) to (but excluding) the next following Interest Period End Date (or the Maturity Date in the case of the last Interest Period);

"Interest Period End Date" 28 February, 28 May, 28 August and 28 November in each year, commencing on 28 May 2022 up to and including the Maturity Date (in each case subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention);

"Interest Valuation Date" 21 February, 21 May, 21 August and 21 November in each year, commencing on 21 May 2022 up to and including 21 February 2027 (or, if any such day is not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day);

"Reference Value" means the Closing Value in respect of a Share in respect of a relevant valuation date divided by the Initial Value in respect of such Share, expressed as a percentage;

"Snowball Level" means, (1) 85%; and (2) 65%;

"Strike Date" means 28 February 2022;

"Specified Denomination" means USD 1,250; and

"Worst Performing Share" means the Share with the lowest Reference Value in respect of a relevant Interest Valuation Date.

Worked examples

Scenario A – Worst Value is greater than or equal to 85%

By way of example, if on 21 August 2022 (or, if such day is not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day) the Worst Value is equal to 90%, Noteholders will receive an interest payment on 28 August 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) equal to (A) the Specified Denomination multiplied by (B) 5%

Therefore, on an investment of USD1,250, an investor in the Note would receive:

$$\text{USD1,250} \times 5\% = \text{USD62.5}$$

In addition, Noteholders will receive on 28 August 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) the sum of all unpaid interest amounts in respect of any previous interest payments at such rate.

Therefore, if no interest amount had been paid on 28 May 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention), because the Worst Value was, for example, equal to 60% on 21 May 2022 (or, if such day was not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day), an investor in the Note would receive an additional:

$$\text{USD1,250} \times 5\% = \text{USD62.5}$$

Accordingly an investor will receive in total USD125

Scenario B – Worst Value is greater than or equal to 65% but lower than 85%

If, however, on 21 August 2022 (or, if such day is not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day) the Worst Value is equal to 75%, Noteholders will receive an interest payment on 28 August 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) equal to (A) the Specified Denomination multiplied by (B) 3.5%

Therefore, on an investment of USD1,250, an investor in the Note would receive:

$$\text{USD1,250} \times 3.5\% = \text{USD43.75}$$

In addition, Noteholders will receive on 28 August 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) the sum of all unpaid interest amounts in respect of any previous interest payments at such rate.

Therefore, if no interest amount had been paid on 28 May 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention), because the Worst Value was, for example, equal to 60% on 21 May 2022 (or, if such day was not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day), an investor in the Note would receive an additional:

$$\text{USD1,250} \times 3.5\% = \text{USD43.75}$$

Accordingly an investor will receive in total USD87.5

Scenario C - Worst Value is lower than 65%

Lastly, if on 21 August 2022 (or, if such day is not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day) the Worst Value is equal to 60%, no interest amount will be payable on 28 August 2022 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention).

Automatic Early Redemption

The Notes may be redeemed early for tax reasons at the early redemption amount calculated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Notes. In addition, if the Reference Value in respect of the Worst Performing Share in respect of an Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date is greater than or equal to Automatic Early Redemption Price, the Notes will be automatically redeemed at 110% of par. The Notes may also be cancelled or redeemed early following the occurrence of certain disruption, adjustment, extraordinary or other events in relation to the Shares.

"Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date" means each Interest Valuation Date (except for the Interest Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 21 February 2027).

Worked example

By way of example, if on 21 August 2023 (or, if such day was not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day), the Worst Value is greater than or equal to 100%, the Notes will be automatically redeemed on 28 August 2023 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) at 110% of par.

Therefore, on an investment of USD1,250, an investor in the Note would receive:
USD1,250 x 110% = USD1,375

Final Redemption – Notes

Each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer on the Maturity Date (unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled) at the Final Redemption Amount for Autocall Standard Notes. In summary, if the Reference Value of the Worst Performing Share in respect of the last Interest Valuation Date is greater than or equal to 65%, the Notes will be redeemed at 120% of par. If the Reference Value in respect of the Worst Performing Share in respect of the last Interest Valuation Date is less than 65% (representing a decline of more than 35% from the Closing Value of such Worst Performing Share as of the Strike Date), Noteholders will receive a final redemption amount in USD equal to (A) the Specified Denomination multiplied by (B) the Reference Value in respect of the Worst Performing Share in respect of the last Interest Valuation Date (which shall be the Knock-in Determination Day and the SPS Redemption Valuation Date), with the result that the nominal amount invested by a Noteholder will be lost at a rate of 1% for every 1% that the Closing Value of such Worst Performing Share in respect of the last Interest Valuation Date is below the Initial Value of such Worst Performing Share.

Worked examples

Scenario A – Worst Value is greater than or equal to 65%

By way of example, if on 21 February 2027 (or, if such day is not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day) the Worst Value is equal to 90%, the Notes will be redeemed on 28 February 2027 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) at 120% of par.

Therefore, on an investment of USD1,250, an investor in the Note would receive:
USD1,250 x 120% = USD1,500

Scenario B – Worst Value is lower than 65%

If, however, on 21 February 2027 (or, if such day is not a scheduled trading day for a Share, the next following scheduled trading day) the Worst Value is equal to 50%, Noteholders will receive on 28 February 2027 (subject to adjustment in accordance with the following business day convention) a final redemption amount in USD equal to (A) the Specified Denomination multiplied by (B) 50%.

Therefore, on an investment of USD1,250, an investor in the Note would receive:
USD1,250 x 50% = USD625
